faithfully assuming and discharging all such debts and charges, otherwise the land so devised to him, or so much of the same, as shall be necessary, is to be used by my executors, herein after named, or the major part of them, in order to pay and discharge such debts and charges. It is to be understood, however, that my share of the burden of paying the debts of my deceased mother and uncle Julius, is not to be accounted as a charge upon the land so devised to my brother Thomas ap Bateby: but in as much as those debts have been already provided for by the mutual agreement of those entitled to the distribution of the estate of my deceased brother Eusebius: I do hereby confirm that arrangement charging all my part and share in the burden of paying my deceased mother & uncle's debts upon my share and portion of the estate of my said deceased brother. 9th I do hereby nominate and appoint Mattie Jones Counsellor of Law, and my brother Roger and Thomas ap Bateby to be executors of this my last will and testament, and desire and request that they be permitted to qualify and act as such Executors in due course of Law, without being held to give any security.

In testimony that the foregoing is truly my last will & testament, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this nineteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & twenty-two.
