

that the said slaves respectively allotted to them shall receive such moral and religious instructions and be so habituated to the useful arts of domestic life as to prepare them as well as circumstances will allow for their ultimate destination of unmanicured colonists, and in particular that the children be reared with a view to that destination. With respect to the three old women Letty (commonly called spinning Letty) Amy & Nancy: considering them too old, either for the purpose of colonization or of intermediate service, I deem that they be permitted to go free: depending upon my brother Thomas ap Batey to continue to Amy & Nancy the apportionment of the house & garden on the land assigned to him as aforesaid, so long as they may need it as a place of shelter: and as to my boy Dary son of Nancy, it is my earnest wish and recommendation to the trustees herein before named & to my executors, that he be immediately sent to school on some public foundation, in view to be educated as a missionary to Africa, or as a minister of the Gospel to be settled in the proposed colony in Africa under the patronage of the said society: and if it be found impracticable to get him admitted into any public school, then that the best and speediest arrangement be made for placing him in the family of some minister of the Gospel upon condition of receiving the necessary instruction to fit him for such ministry among the people of his own class. 3rd If it shall so happen that the said colonization society or the acting managers of the same, should not find it expedient within ten years after my decease, to execute the trust herein before declared in regard to the colonization of the said slaves: then I do hereby declare and devise that after they shall have respectively served the persons to whom I have devised their services, as herein before declared for the space of ten years from my decease, they shall be absolutely and unconditionally man-
