The colored man applying to me appears to be, and I have no doubt is, a man of fine of fine and humane feelings, and I would be glad to be the means to be the means of serving him in any way, and hope that he may be able to discover his long lost relations,

Yours, respectfully,

Robt. P. Flaming,

Editor of the "Jefferson Journal."